GREATER WI EAPA CHAPTER

Unmasking the Invisible Wounds: Human Trafficking Awareness for Mental Health Providers

Embark on an eye-opening journey into the chilling reality of human trafficking, a global crisis leaving deep psychological scars on millions. Join our groundbreaking conference tailored for mental health providers, where you'll delve into the complexities of trafficking in the US equipping yourself with essential tools to recognize warning signs and impact survivors' lives.

Featuring:

Neal Lofy, Special Agent, WI Department of Justice, Division of Criminal Investigation Human Trafficking Bureau

Erica Lounsberry, Assistant US Attorney, US Department of Justice, US Attorney's Office, Eastern District of Wisconsin

October 11, 2024

Agenda

Registration & Networking: 8am
Keynote: 8:30 – 10:00am
Vendors: 10am
Breakout Sessions: 10:30-12pm

EARN PDHs & CEUS

Earn 3 credits!

Location

Aurora Park Place
7800 N. 113th St.,
Milwaukee, WI, 53224

EARLY BIRD RATES

Students: $15
Members: $25
Non-Members: $50

Early bird registration ends August 31st!

REGULAR RATES

Students: $15
Members: $35
Non-Members: $60

Register in our website!

Want to become a MEMBER?

As a member, you'll gain access to a supportive network, earn CEUs through top-notch training sessions, and collaborate with peers on complex cases. Elevate your practice, expand your expertise, and be part of a supportive community committed to making a difference.

www.eapasowi.org